- (e) of remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to a body corporate in which a member of the Association is interested solely by virtue of being a member of that body corporate by holding not more than one-hundredth part of its capital or controlling not more than a one-hundredth part of its votes.

5. The liability of the members is limited.

6. Every member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association, in the event of its being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceased to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding-up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding HK$100.00.

7. If upon the winding-up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever ("the net assets"), the net assets shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Association but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions, having objects similar to the objects of the Association, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property amongst its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association under or by virtue of Clause 4 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by a resolution of the members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution and in default thereof by a Judge of the High Court of The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region having jurisdiction in regard to charitable funds, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to the aforesaid provision then to some charitable object.

8. True accounts shall be kept of the sum of money received and expended by the Association and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place, and of the property, credits and liabilities of the Association, and, subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Association for the time being in force, such accounts shall be open to inspection of the members. Once, at least in every year, the accounts of the Association shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors.
9. No addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to or in this Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association for the time being in force, unless such addition, alteration or amendment has previously been submitted to and approved by the Registrar of Companies in writing or is made under a direction given under section 104(2)(b) or 105 of the Ordinance.
10. The Association shall not form a subsidiary or hold a controlling interest in another body corporate, unless the formation of such a subsidiary or the holding of such a controlling interest has previously been approved by the Registrar of Companies in writing.

We, the several persons whose names, addresses and descriptions are hereto subscribed, are desirous of being formed into a company in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association: -

MEMBERS

4. The subscribers to the Memorandum of Association and of these Articles, such persons or bodies who are members of the unincorporated body known as "Hong Kong Amateur Gymnastic Association (香港業餘體操協會)" and such persons or bodies as the Executive Committee shall admit to membership in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained shall be members of the Association and their names shall be entered in the Register of Members accordingly.
5. Every application for membership shall be made in writing, signed by the applicant in such form as the Executive Committee shall, from time to time prescribe or approve, and the Executive Committee shall have an absolute discretion to accept or reject any application and to decide in which class of membership an applicant is to be admitted without giving any explanation.

6. The privileges of the members shall not be transferable or transmissible and shall cease on death or dissolution.

7. The classes of members and the qualifications, restrictions and conditions applicable to each class shall be as follows: -

(a) There shall be the following classes of members, namely: -

(i) INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

These shall comprise persons who are admitted as members of any Voting Member, who demonstrated a continuous interest in Gymnastics and a desire to promote the sport of Gymnastics.

(ii) ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

These shall comprise persons who are not admitted as members of any Voting Member but have demonstrated an interest in Gymnastics.

(iii) VOTING MEMBERS

These shall comprise organizations, societies, associations or other bodies with at least five Individual Members of this Association which are interested in the sport of Gymnastics and the promotion of such sport.

(iv) CORPORATE MEMBERS

These shall comprise organizations, societies, associations or other bodies which are interested in the sport of Gymnastics and the promotion of such sport.

(v) HONORARY INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

These shall comprise such Individual Members who have rendered distinguished service to the Association or in the promotion of the sport of Gymnastics as the Executive Committee shall bestow such honorary title upon as the Executive Committee may deem fit.

(vi) HONORARY LIFE MEMBERS

These shall comprise such persons who have rendered valuable service to the Association or in the promotion of the sport of Gymnastics generally in Hong Kong Special Administrative Region may, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, be elected Honorary Life Members of the Association by Ordinary Resolution passed at any General Meeting.

- (b) The Executive Committee shall have absolute discretion in accepting or refusing anyone for membership and in the event of refusal shall not be required to give any reasons.
- (c) The Executive Committee shall have the power hereinafter contained by written notice to suspend the membership for a period of no more than 3 months of any member who fails to abide by the Memorandum and Articles and his membership shall be terminated forthwith if the decision of the Executive Committee is endorsed by members in General Meeting. Notwithstanding the aforesaid suspension, the member being suspended shall be entitled to be heard on the intended resolution at the General Meeting before he is being expelled from the Association.
- (d) Any member may resign from the Association at any time by written notification to the Executive Committee to that effect.
- (e) Every Associate and Individual Member, unless residing overseas, shall pay an annual subscription as proposed by the Executive Committee, from time to time, which shall be subject to the endorsement by the members at General Meeting provided that in the case of a new member his first subscription shall be payable upon his application for membership.

- (f) Every Corporate Member and Voting Member shall pay an annual subscription to be proposed by the Executive Committee, from time to time which shall be subject to be endorsement by the members at General Meeting, provided that in the case of a new member its first subscription shall be payable upon its application for membership.
- (g) If an application for membership is refused, the first subscription shall be returned to the applicant.
- (h) Associate Members, Individual Members and Corporate Members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership, except that they shall not be entitled to receive notices of General Meeting or to vote at General Meetings.

Casual vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by co-option as the Executive Committee thinks fit pursuant to these Articles. The Executive Committee may, from time to time, appoint from its Member of the Executive Committee honorary secretaries. If the Association has dispensed with the holding of annual general meetings or is not required to hold annual general meetings, such [President and Vice President / Officers / Members of the Executive Committee (as the case may be)] must retire from office before the end of 9 months after the end of the Association's accounting reference period by reference to which the financial year in which the [President and Vice President / Officers / Members of the Executive Committee (as the case may be)] was/ were appointed is to be determined.

- (b) All Member of the Executive Committee shall serve their respective offices for the period from the date of their election co-option or appointment to the date of the Annual General Meeting to be held two years after the date of election whereupon the Member of the Executive Committee shall retire from office by rotation and shall then be eligible for re-election.
- 15. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for organizing and transacting all business of the Association pursuant to its objects.
 - 16. The Executive Committee shall manage the business and affairs of the Association, exercise all the powers of the Association and do all such acts as may be exercised or done by the Association, except only such of them as under Ordinance or regulations and the Memorandum and Articles are expressly directed to be exercised or done by the Association in General Meeting, but no regulation made by the Association in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Executive Committee which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
 - 17. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for organizing the scientific and social programme of the Association.
 - 18. The Executive Committee may, from time to time, make rules and bye-laws for the conduct of the business of the Association, the conduct of General Meetings, of their own meetings, and the appointment, constitution and conduct of meetings of Sub-Committees, or any other matter affecting the affairs of the Association or the rights, privileges or duties of members and may alter and rescind any rules or bye-laws so made, PROVIDED THAT: -

- (a) no rule or bye-law so made shall be inconsistent with or involve an alteration or amendment of or addition to these Articles which could only properly be effected by a Special Resolution or shall deal with any matter which can only properly be dealt with by the Association in General Meeting; and
- (b) such rules and bye-laws may be set aside by a Special Resolution at a General Meeting.

19. In furtherance of the objects of the Association but not otherwise, the Executive Committee may exercise all the powers of the Association to borrow money, to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property, or any part thereof.

20. (a) The Executive Committee may, from time to time, appoint any Individual Member to fill a vacancy (whether casual or arising from a failure to elect sufficient Member of the Executive Committee at an Annual General Meeting) but so that the total number of members of the Executive Committee shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed in accordance with these Articles. Any member so appointed shall hold office only until the Annual General Meeting is to be held four years after date of election of the Member of the Executive Committee and shall then be eligible for re-election. If the Association has dispensed with the holding of annual general meetings or is not required to hold annual general meetings, such [President and Vice President / Officers / Members of the Executive Committee (as the case may be)] must retire from office before the end of 9 months after the end of the Association's accounting reference period by reference to which the financial year in which the [President and Vice President / Officers / Members of the Executive Committee (as the case may be)] was/ were appointed is to be determined.

- (b) At the first Annual General Meeting all Member of the Executive Committee shall retire from office, and at every subsequent Annual General Meeting at which Officers and members of the Executive Committee are to be elected one third of the Member of the Executive Committee who are subject to retirement by rotation or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one third shall retire from office.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, the Member of the Executive Committee to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election or re-election, but as between persons who became or were last re-elected Executive Committee member on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 21. (a) The Executive Committee may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and business as they think fit.
- (b) The Secretary on the requisition of any two or more members of the Executive Committee shall at any time summon a meeting of the Executive Committee by giving not less than seven (7) days notice in writing specifying the Agenda thereof to all the members for the time being of the Executive Committee save that it shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of the Executive Committee to any member thereof for the time being absent from Hong Kong and the accidental failure or omission to give notice to or the non-receipt of notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of a meeting.
- (c) The Chairman may at any time summon a special meeting of the Executive Committee by giving not less than three (3) days notice in writing specifying the Agenda thereof to all the members for the time being of the Executive Committee.

22. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Executive Committee shall be six members of the Executive Committee personally present.
23. The Chairman of the Executive Committee shall preside at meetings of the Executive Committee. If however at any meeting of the Executive Committee the Chairman shall not be present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting the Vice-Chairman shall preside the meetings; failing him, the members of the Executive Committee present at such meeting may select one of the members to be the chairman of that meeting.
24. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a simple majority on a show of hands and in the case of any equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
25. The continuing members of the Executive Committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body but if and for so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the regulations of the Association as the necessary quorum of members, the continuing members of the Executive Committee may act for the purpose of filling vacancies or of convening a General Meeting, but for no other purpose.
26. A member of the Executive Committee may not receive any salary or remuneration but he shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Association in respect of traveling and other out-of-pocket expenses properly incurred in and about the affairs of the Association.

27. The Executive Committee shall cause proper minutes to be made and books provided in a manner as required by the Ordinance for the purpose: -

- (g) he fails to attend Executive Committee Meetings three times consecutively without reasonable excuse.
- (h) he becomes prohibited from being a Committee Member or a director by reason of any order made under Part IVA of the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32) or is prohibited from being a director by law.

- (i) he is directly or indirectly interested in any transaction, arrangement or contract with the Association and fails to declare the nature of his interest in manner required by Section 162 of the predecessor Ordinance or Section 536 of the Ordinance.

29. All acts done by any meeting of the Executive Committee or a Sub-Committee or by any person acting as a member of the Executive Committee or a Sub-Committee, shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was an irregularity in the appointment of any such member of the Executive Committee or a Sub-Committee or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or was qualified to be member of the Executive Committee or such Sub-Committee.

SUB-COMMITTEES

30. The Executive Committee may, from time to time, appoint such Sub-Committees as it considers necessary for securing the efficient discharge of its functions and may delegate in writing to any such Sub-Committee any of its powers and duties provided that no delegation made hereunder shall preclude the Executive Committee from exercising or performing or resuming at any time any of the powers and duties so delegated. A Sub-Committee may be dissolved by the Executive Committee at any time. A Sub-Committee so appointed cannot be affiliated to any outside organisation.

31. Each Sub-Committee shall be constituted and shall exercise such powers and authorities as the Executive Committee shall, from time to time appoint, provided always that each Sub-Committee shall have a chairman who is a member of the Executive Committee. No person shall be appointed as a member of the Sub-Committee unless he is an Individual Member of the Association and a member of the Sub-Committee shall vacate office if he ceases to be an Individual Member of the Association.
32. Any casual vacancy occurring in the office of chairman of a Sub-Committee shall be filled by one of the members of the Executive Committee but the person so appointed shall be subject to the same conditions as to tenure of office as his predecessor.
33. Subject to Section 107 of Schedule 11 to and sections 611, 612 and 613 of the Ordinance, the chairman of a Sub-Committee shall take the chair at meetings thereof and the quorum for meetings of a Sub-Committee, unless otherwise fixed by it, shall be two. Subject as aforesaid and to any regulations or directions applicable to it, the meetings and proceedings of each Sub-Committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles relating to meetings and proceedings of the Executive Committee so far as the same may be capable of being made applicable thereto.

OTHER SERVANTS

34. The Executive Committee may, from time to time, appoint, employ and remove any managers, clerks, servants, coaches or instructors either in any honorary capacity or at any salaries and wages respectively and with such respective duties and spheres or employment for such length of service and generally upon such terms as it thinks fit.

THE SEAL

35. For the avoidance of doubts, no common seal shall be adopted by the Association.

GENERAL MEETINGS

36. Subject to section 107 of Schedule 11 to and section 611, 612 and 613 of the Ordinance, the Association shall in each financial year hold an Annual General Meeting in accordance with section 610 of the Ordinance in addition to any other meetings in that year and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, and in no case shall more than fifteen months elapse between that date of one Annual General Meeting of the Association and that of the next provided that so long as the Association holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Executive Committee shall appoint.
37. (a) All general meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
- (b) The Executive Committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a General Meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, if the Member of the Executive Committee are required to call a General Meeting under section 566 of the Ordinance, they must call it in accordance with section 567 of the Ordinance. If the Member of the Executive Committee do not call a General Meeting in accordance with section 567 of the Ordinance, the Member of the Executive Committee who requested the meeting, or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of them, may themselves call a General Meeting in accordance with section 568 of the Ordinance.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

38. (a) Subject to the provisions contained in Part 12 of the Ordinance, an Annual General Meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by at least twenty-one days notice in writing, and a meeting of the Association other than an Annual General Meeting or a meeting for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by at least fourteen days notice in writing. The notice shall be exclusive of the day upon which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons as are under these Articles entitled to receive such notices from the Association. There shall appear on every such notice with reasonable prominence a statement that a Voting Member having the right to vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him under section 596(1) of the Ordinance and that a proxy must be an Individual Member of the Association under section 596(2) of the Ordinance.
- (b) The Secretary shall, not less than 21 days prior to each Annual General Meeting at which Officers and members of the Executive Committee are to be elected, cause to be sent to each Voting Member the following: -
- (i) a ballot paper in such form as the Executive Committee may prescribe bearing a statement as to the Offices and the number of vacancies to be filled and containing the names of the candidates for election as such Officers and members of the Executive Committee in alphabetical order of surnames, and with provision for the Voting Member making use of the same to indicate the names of the candidates for whom he wishes to vote; and

(ii) an instrument appointing a proxy in the form as prescribed in these Articles and the number of vacancies to be filled and containing the names of the candidates for election as Officers and members of the Executive Committee in alphabetical order of surnames, and with provision for the Voting Member making use of the same to indicate the names of the candidates for whom he wishes the person appointed as his proxy to vote.

(c) A Voting Member may vote in the election of Officers and members of the Executive Committee: -

(i) by post or by facsimile transmission or by email in accordance with Article 38 (d);

(ii) by proxy in accordance with Article 38 (e); or

(iii) in person in accordance with Article 38 (f).

(d) A Voting Member who wishes to vote by post or by facsimile transmission shall mark or otherwise indicate in the manner set forth in the ballot paper referred to in Article 38(b)(i) those persons nominated as Officers and members of the Executive Committee for whom he wishes to vote and shall return the completed ballot paper to the scrutineers appointed by the Committee to be received by them not less than 72 hours before the General Meeting at which the election is to be held. No Voting Member shall indicate more names than there are vacancies for the relevant Office to be filled and in the event any Voting Member shall do so his ballot paper shall be invalid. A statement by the scrutineers to the effect that a duly completed ballot paper sent under these provisions has been received by the scrutineers in due time shall be conclusive evidence of such receipt.

- (e) A Voting Member who wishes to vote by proxy shall return a completed instrument of proxy to the scrutineers appointed by the Executive Committee to be received by them not less than 48 hours before the General Meeting at which the election is to be held. A statement by the scrutineers to the effect that a duly completed instrument of proxy sent under these provisions has been received by the scrutineers in due time shall be conclusive evidence of such receipt.
- (f) At any General Meeting at which Officers and members of the Executive Committee are to be appointed, each Voting Member, represented by a duly authorized representative present in person shall be given a voting paper for use by him to vote in person. Each voting paper shall bear a statement as to the Offices and the number of vacancies to be filled and shall contain the names of the candidates for election as such Officers in alphabetical order of surnames. A Voting Member who wishes to vote in person or as proxy for another Voting Member shall mark or otherwise indicate in the manner set forth on the voting paper those persons nominated whom he votes for as Officers in the election. No Voting Member shall indicate more names than there are vacancies to be filled for the relevant Office or the number of nominated candidates and in the event that any Voting Member shall do so his voting paper shall be invalid.
- (g) A Voting Member, represented by a duly authorized representative present in person, may attend the General Meeting and vote in person in the election of Officers and members of the Executive Committee notwithstanding that he has returned a completed ballot paper or instrument of proxy to the scrutineers. The vote of a Voting Member who has returned a completed ballot paper in accordance with Article 38(d) shall be countermanded if such Voting Member attends the relevant General Meeting and by a vote on behalf of that Voting Member by a proxy appointed by him. The vote of proxy of a Voting Member who has returned a completed instrument of proxy in accordance with Article 38(e) shall be countermanded if such Voting Member attends the relevant General Meeting.

- (h) At any General Meeting at which Officers are to be appointed the ballot papers submitted in accordance with Article 38(d) and the voting papers (together with all instruments of proxy relative thereto) complete in accordance with Article 38(f) shall be counted and checked by the scrutineers who shall prepare as soon as possible the result of the ballot showing the total number of votes cast for each candidate and shall hand the same to the chairman of the meeting who shall announce the names of the successful candidates being those with the highest number of votes. In the case of an equality of votes between the candidates having the maximum number of votes for the Offices then as between those candidates, the successful candidates shall be determined by lot drawn by the chairman of the meeting.

- 39. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting or (where instruments of proxy are sent out with the notice) the accidental omission to send such instrument of proxy to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting or such instrument of proxy by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 40. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of: -

- (a) The consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, reports of the Executive Committee and the Auditors;
 - (b) The election of the President and the Vice-President in the place of the persons retiring from such positions;
 - (c) The election of members of the Executive Committee in the place of the retiring members;
 - (d) The election of Officers of the Association in the place of the retiring Officers;
 - (e) The fixing of, or the determination of the method of fixing, the remuneration of the Auditors;
 - (f) The appointment of Auditors.
41. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and continues to be present until the conclusion of the meeting. Ten Voting Members, represented by the respective duly authorized representatives present in person and entitled to vote shall be a quorum, save as is otherwise provided in these Articles.
42. If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and to such other time and place as the Executive Committee may by not less than two days notice to the members entitled to receive notices of General Meetings prescribe and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.
43. The President or, in his absence, one of the Vice-President shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting of the Association. If however at any General Meeting of the Association the President or Vice-President shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of such meeting, the Chairman of the Executive Committee shall preside as chairman; failing him, the Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee shall take the chair; failing him, the members of the Association present at such meeting may select one of the members to be chairman of the meeting.

44. The chairman of a General Meeting may, with the consent of such meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
45. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the chairman of the meeting or by at least two Voting Members, represented by duly authorized representative(s) present in person and entitled to vote or any Voting Member or members present in person or by proxy and representing at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the Voting Members having the right to vote at the meeting, and unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

46. If a poll is duly demanded, it may be given personally, by proxy or by post and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
47. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
48. A poll demanded on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time within not more than thirty days as the chairman of the meeting directs.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

49. Every Voting Member (whether by post or by facsimile transmission or present by a duly nominated representative who must be an Individual Member of the Association or by proxy or by email) shall have one vote and, save as is otherwise provided in these Articles every question shall be decided by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded.
50. No Voting Member shall be entitled to have notice of or to be admitted to any General Meeting or to vote at such meeting or to any of the privileges of membership while any subscription is in arrears or other moneys presently payable by it to the Association remained unpaid. For the purposes of this Article subscriptions shall be deemed to be in arrears if unpaid by the First day of April next after the same became payable but the proceedings at any General Meeting shall not be invalidated because it is subsequently found that a Voting Member has voted notwithstanding its disability under this Article.

PROXIES

51. (a) A Voting Member wishing to vote by proxy may appoint only one person to act as such proxy and that person must be an Individual Member of the Association.
- (b) An instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing, executed by or on behalf of the appointer and shall be in the following form (or in a form as near thereto as circumstances allow):

THE GYMNASTICS ASSOCIATION OF HONG KONG, CHINA

(中國香港體操總會)

I/We, [] of [] (Membership No. []) being a Voting Member of the above Association, hereby appoint [], of [] (Membership No. []), or failing him, [], of [] (Membership No. []) as my/or proxy to vote in my/our name[s] and on my behalf at the annual/extraordinary general meeting of the Association to be held on [], and at any adjournment thereof.

This form of proxy is to be used in respect of the resolutions mentioned below

Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit or obtain from voting.

Signed this day of , 20[]

- (c) The instrument appointing a proxy must be returned to the scrutineers appointed by the Executive Committee to be received by them not less than forty-eight hours before the time of holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof.
- (d) An instrument appointing a proxy may be revoked by forwarding to the Secretary not less than forty-eight hours before the time holding the meeting at which the person name in such instrument proposes to vote written notification of such revocation signed by the appointer.

DISCIPLINE

52. The Executive Committee shall have full power either by itself or through any Sub-Committee to whom its power in that behalf may be delegated in writing to make rules and bye-laws (subject to Article 18) for the good conduct of the members of the Association and in relation to the Association's affairs and for the good conduct and discipline of all persons (whether members of the Association or not) taking part in any of the activities of the Association or in any activities with which the Association may be associated.

ACCOUNTS

53. The Executive Committee shall keep accounting records that comply with Subdivision 2 of Division 4 of Part 9 of the Ordinance with respect to: -

- (a) all sums of moneys received and expended by the Association, and the matters in respect of which the receipt of expenditure takes place;
- (b) all sales and purchases of the Association;
- (c) the assets and liabilities of the Association.

Proper accounting records shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such accounting records as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Association's affairs and to explain its transactions, and to follow accounting standards issued or adopted by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants or its successors and to adhere to all of this recommended practices.

54. Sufficient accounting records shall be kept at the Office, or, subject to the applicable statutory requirement, at such other place or places as the Executive Committee may think fit, and shall be open to the inspection of the members of the Executive Committee during usual office hours of the Association.

55. The accounts of the Association maintained with any financial institutions shall be scrutinized by the Treasurer. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Association, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by the two Officers as the Executive Committee may direct from time to time.

56. Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, the Association in General Meeting may, from time to time, make reasonable conditions and regulations as to the time and manner of the inspection by members of the Association (other than members of the Executive Committee) of the accounts and books of the Association or any of them, and subject to such conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the Association shall be open to inspection by members of the Association at all reasonable times during normal business hours.

57. The Executive Committee shall, from time to time, in accordance with the applicable statutory requirements, including but not limited to, Sections 429, 431 & 610 and 383, 388-391 & 452(3) of the Ordinance, cause to be prepared and laid before the Association in Annual General Meeting such Reporting Documents for each accounting reference period as required by the applicable statutory requirements.
58. A copy of the balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Association in General Meeting, together with a copy of the Executive Committee's report and a copy of the Auditors' report shall not less than twenty-one clear days before the date of the meeting be sent to all persons entitled to receive notices of General Meetings of the Association in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be served provided that this Article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person of whose address the Association is not aware.

AUDIT

59. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with, inter alia, Sections 373, 374, 377, 394-399 and 429 & 431 of the Ordinance.

NOTICES

60. A notice may be given by the Association to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him to his registered address where he must give the Association for the purpose of serving notices when he applies for membership. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been deemed effective in all cases on the day following that upon which such letter is so posted.

61. Notice of every General Meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorized to: -

- (a) every Voting Member; and
- (b) the Auditors for the time being of the Association.

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of General Meetings.

INDEMNITY

62. Every agent, auditor, secretary and officer of the Association (other than a member of the Executive Committee) shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Association against all liabilities incurred by him as such person or persons in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with an application under Section 358 of the predecessor Ordinance (as defined in section 2(1) of the Ordinance) or Section 903 or 904 of the Ordinance 902-904 of the Ordinance in which relief is granted to him by the Court PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT such liabilities shall exclude payment of the whole or part of any fine or penalty imposed on him by sentence or order of a Court of

WINDING UP

63. (i) The Association may be dissolved by a Special Resolution of the Voting Members at a General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting convened for the purpose.
- (ii) The provisions of Clause 7 of the Memorandum and Articles of Association relating to the winding up or dissolution of the Association shall have effect and be observed as if the same were repeated in these Articles.

ANTI-DOPING

64. The Anti-Doping Rules promulgated by The Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China and/or Hong Kong Anti-Doping Committee (as the case may be) from time to time shall be incorporated into these Articles and any person(s) (whether members of the Association or not) taking part in any of the activities of the Association or in any activities with which the Association may be associated, who act(s) in breach thereof, shall be subject to discipline as imposed by the Executive Committee as it deems fit and proper.

DECLARATION OF INTEREST

65. An Executive Committee Member who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in any transaction, arrangement or contract (being a transaction arrangement or contract of significance in relation to the Association's operation) with the Association shall, if his interest in the transaction, arrangement or contract is material, declare the nature and extent of his interest at an Executive Committee meeting in accordance with Section 162 of the predecessor Ordinance or Section 536 of the Ordinance and shall not vote or be counted for quorum purposes in respect of any such transaction, arrangement or contract, and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted. A reference in this article to a transaction, arrangement or contract includes a proposed transaction, arrangement or contract. A general notice given to the Association that an Executive Committee Member is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and to the extent as specified in the notice, in any transaction, arrangement or contract which may, after the date of the notice be entered into or made by the Association, shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the Executive Committee Member of the Association has an interest in any transaction, arrangement or contract of the nature and to the extent so specified.
